ILLUSTRATED SECTION

FOUR PAGES

TORONTO SUNDAY MORNING JANUARY 28 1917

-PRICE FIVE CENTS

HEAVY ARTILLERY AND AMMUNITION AS FRENCH BATTERING RAMS

View of a French ammunition depot, the great shells being placed in railway cars for transport to the front.

Countless numbers of shells behind the French lines waiting to be taken forward as fodder for the Boches on the Somme front.

French troops returning from first line trenches at the point where the British and French forces communicate. It is at this point the Teutons are striking hardest.

New battering rams for France. The interior of a French gun and ammunition depot showing the new Crapouilland guns.

The Sultan of Zanzibar was given a freat when the forces of Great Britain visited his domains quite recently. He is here shown trying a "Lewis Rattler."

Italians preparing to change their artillery positions in the Trentino. This is a "heavy" company ready to start, and a small tractor is the motive power.

THESE CANADIANS HAVE BEEN THRU THE FIGHT AND KNOW THE GAME

Rival baseball feams of convalescents in England. The Orping ton team, those with caps, won against the Bushey Park feam by 17 to 7.

Wounded soldiers, nurses and friends at an English hospital. Photo sent by Pte. Will Coulter (cross), formerly of 83 Empire avenue, Toronto.

Red Cross Hospital at Mere. Wilts, and a number of inmates and nurses.

The cross marks

Canadian Convalescent Hospital, Bea r Wood, Wokingham.
Photo sent by Driver E. Milnes, Port Hope

Canadian Special Hospital, Granville Hotel, Ramsgate.

— Photo sent by Driver E. Milnes, Port Hope.

Clayton Court War Hospital, Liss. Photo sent by A. Rogers.

These happy fellows have been thru the fight at various sections of the battle front and are here shown at the Canadian Convalescent Hospital at Uxbridge, England,

Pourth to a series of hospital pictures appearing exclusively to The Sun day World

While the women sat thus labelling and packing in the finishing room of a champagne factory in Rheims, a terriffic bombardment was in progress and shells were dropping all about the factory.

Camels form an important adjunct to the Brilish Commissarint in Egypt, and are here seen transporting trench-building materials for the Egyption campaign.

A group of 169th men while at the model cam p. Canadian National Exhibition, last year.

They are now overseas. Ptc. Breternikz for warded the picture.

Driver W. J. Arm trong, 8th Brigade, headquarters' staff.

Charles Norman, 132 Westmoreland avenue, of the 34th Battery, who was awarded Military Medal for conspicuous bravery on the field.

Conner John Hall and Driver James Hall, 48th Battery, now overseas.

Lance-Corp. J. Taverneo, who died of wounds, belonged to 42nd High-

Late Pte. W. F. Porteous, who died of wounds re-

Ptc. W. Fitzgerald and chums, trench mortar battery, 10th Inf. Brigade, France.

Pte. George Harper, 83rd Battalion.

Pte. D. B. Banks, 277 Arthur street, and Pte. F. Campbell, 124th Battation, now pals in France.

Pte. Inglis Flinn, 37th Baltalion, now in France.

Membrur fary do Loutsed, principal of the Turnelle School of Languages, who is forming F on any Spanish areas for com-

"The National Smoke"

THE WORLD'S GREATEST SPECTAGLE COLOR COLOR

NEXT WEEK---THE POPULAR YOUNG FISKE O'HARA IN HIS NEW ROMANTIC "HIS HEART'S DESIRE"--- NEXT WEEK

Recruiting staff of the 208th Irish Battalion outside their recruiting depot at the corner of Adetaide and Bay streets, Toronto,

Italian warriors motering to the front line. The transport, tho not as sumptuous as a limousine or a roadster, rushes the Italian reservists who have bid farewell to their triends, lined up ready to go to the Union Station, Toronto.

Italian reinforcements moving up for a counter offensive in the Asiago heights, where the Austrians are located